

Corporate 100 Club:

Commitment of $100,000. Pledge can be paid over 1-4 years.

Benefits include:

- Opportunity to engage closely with Foundation leadership to influence major pro bono initiatives, including opportunities to leverage your company's workforce as volunteers
- Opportunity for company leadership to join our Corporate Advisory Council, a platform for thought leadership, collaboration, and robust dialogue that can broaden and strengthen our mission to make financial planning more accessible to underserved populations
- Opportunity to see your company's brand included alongside other Corporate 100 members in FFP's donated ads that are featured in industry publications like InvestmentNews, Financial Advisor, Financial Planning, and Journal of Financial Planning
- Opportunity for company and company leadership to be prominently featured on our website's new Corporate Partnerships page and in our e-newsletter, distributed to 10,000 leading financial advisors
- Opportunity to allocate all or a portion of funds to sponsor Foundation events or programs, including our Fall Reception at the FPA® National Conference, our Pro Bono for Cancer Campaign, our work with military & veterans, and more.

Current Corporate 100 Club members include:

Charles Schwab & Co. ($500,000+)

Fidelity Investments ($500,000+)

AIG Financial Distributors ($250,000+)

Capital Group ($200,000+)

Commonwealth Financial Network ($100,000+)

BNY Mellon's Pershing Advisor Solutions ($100,000+)

TD Ameritrade Institutional ($100,000+)